

DEPUTY FLIGHT COMMANDER

The Deputy Flight Commander reports directly to his/her Flight Commander. The Deputy Flight Commanders are responsible for all cadets and NCO's within their respective flights. In general terms, they are responsible for:

- a. the dress, drill and deportment and discipline in their flight;
- b. the phone chain within their flight;
- c. assisting the Flight Commander in addressing absenteeism;
- d. attending all activities which involve the flight he is part of;
- e. displaying a high standard of dress at all times;
- f. ensuring new recruits integrate well into the flight;
- g. encouraging every member of the flight to participate in all Squadron activities;
- h. assisting the Flight Commander in evaluating members of the flight;
- i. reporting all flight problems or concerns to the Flight Commander;
- j. taking the place of the Flight Commander when necessary;
- k. performing any and all other duties as required by his superiors.